

To whom it may concern

I have been acquainted with Ms Olive Garcia Chija for over two years as we were working together at Markono Print Media Pte Ltd in Singapore.

Olive is a very hardworking and dedicated person. She is kind and compassionate and does her best to help people in need.

In addition to these above mentioned, Olive has a contagious positive attitude and you can rely on her to remain very calm even in stressful situations.

For the above reasons, I recommend Olive and assure you that she will be a worthy asset to any organisation or company.

Hope that the above are clear and in good order.

Please do contact me if there are any queries from your end.

Your Sincerely,
Goh Ivan
